Heritage sites and Monuments

†420. SHRI MUKHTAR ABBAS NAQVI: Will the Minister of CULTURE be pleased to state:

(a) the detailed list of the heritage sites and monuments under Government's control;

(b) the measures taken for their maintenance and security; and

(c) the action taken by Government on destruction of a number of heritage sites, monuments and statues in Rampur district of Uttar Pradesh?

THE MINISTER OF CULTURE (SHRI S. JAIPAL REDDY): (a) The State-wise list of 3660 Centrally protected monuments under the control of Archaeological Survey of India is given in the Statement (See below).

†Original notice of the question was received in Hindi.

(b) The Archaeological Survey of India (ASI) takes care of the maintenance of the security of the Centrally protected monuments.

The ASI has regular watch and ward staff for the security of the protected monuments. Their strength has been augmented through engagement of private security guards, state police personnel and CISF. ASI has a phased programme of providing physical protection through fencing of the monuments.

The conservation programme of the ASI includes regular maintenance, structural conservation, special repairs, chemical preservation and development of environs.

(c) There is no Centrally protected monument in Rampur district, Uttar Pradesh. Based on a recent survey of the heritage structures in Rampur District by the Archaeological Survey of India, the Uttar Pradesh Government has been requested to protect them under the State heritage laws/regulation and to conserve them along established norms.
